

Destroyer – Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 5/22/24

Welcome to Destroyer. Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy outlines our practices concerning the handling of your data when you use Destroyer. Currently, Destroyer is only available in Demo Mode, therefore this Privacy Policy concerns the handling of your data in Demo Mode.

1. Data Storage and Processing in Demo Mode

Destroyer is currently operating in Demo Mode. In this mode, please note:

- No External Storage: No user-created notes are transmitted to, saved on, or stored in any external server or database by Destroyer.
- Data Deletion Upon Refresh: Any notes stored in your browser will be automatically deleted if you refresh your browser page.
- Data Persistence: Please be aware that notes stored in Destroyer will be lost if you close your web browser or clear your browser's cache and data.

2. Usage of Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to collect and process statistical data about the use of our site. This helps us improve the user experience. Google Analytics may collect information about your interaction with our site without identifying you individually. For more information on how Google uses this data, please visit Google's privacy page.

3. Integration with Anthropic API

Destroyer utilizes the Anthropic API to sort and manage notes through the AI Sort feature. Please be aware of the following:

- Data Sharing: When you use the AI Sort feature, the data you input into Destroyer (specifically your notes) may be processed by the Anthropic API.
- Sensitive Information: We advise against inputting sensitive or personally identifiable information into Destroyer when using the AI Sort feature, as this data will be shared with the Anthropic API.

Your Responsibilities

As a user of Destroyer in Demo Mode, you are responsible for any data you input while using the site. Since the data is stored locally and not backed up to any external server, we recommend that you save important notes elsewhere before refreshing your browser.

Consent

By using Destroyer, you consent to the data practices described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with this policy, please refrain from using Destroyer.

For any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy, please contact us at mitchgruen.dev@gmail.com.

We reserve the right to make changes to this Privacy Policy at any time. Such changes will be effective immediately upon posting on this page, with an updated effective date. By continuing to use the service after these changes are made, you agree to the revised policy.
